PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Awarded the Leadership Legacy Award by the Dwight Hall at Yale Center for Public Service and Social Justice
- Mortgage Foreclosure Litigation Clinic has filed amicus briefs in the U.S. Supreme Court (Bank of America, N.A. v. David B. Caulkett), as well as in the Supreme Courts of Florida (Lewis Brooke Bartram v. U.S. Bank National Association); Maine (Homeward Residential Inc. v. Marianne A. Gregor and Bank of America, N.A. v. Scott Greenleaf); and Connecticut (MERSCORP Holdings, Inc. v. Dannel P. Malloy, Governor). The briefs address issues ranging from federal bankruptcy in the context of foreclosure; to res judicata and collateral estoppel; to the nature of—and flaws found in—the modern mortgage servicing industry. All of these cases fit with the Clinic’s overall policy goals of achieving economic justice for struggling homeowners, and constructing an increased oversight role on banks for state and local judicial and legislative authorities.
