The annual New York City alumni luncheon took place on June 7 with remarks from Dean Heather K. Gerken and James Forman Jr. '92, J. Skelly Wright Professor of Law and Faculty Director of the Law and Racial Justice Center. Additionally, Yale Law School hosted two Craig Wasserman '86/Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz Alumni Breakfasts with the Yale Law School Center for the Study of Corporate Law at The Century Association in New York. The breakfast on June 28 was titled Policing the Securities and Digital Asset Markets: Current Enforcement Priorities, while the event on Nov. 26 covered The Transformative Impact of Artificial Intelligence on Healthcare and Legal Practice.

Throughout the year and in cities across the country, alumni gather for events organized by Yale Law School's Office of Alumni Engagement and Development. Here is a sampling of the events that have taken place over the past six months.

COAST TO COAST

On June 13, alumni convened for the Annual Alumni Dinner in Washington, D.C., featuring Sen. Christopher Coons '92. In the heart of Boston's Back Bay, alumni met at Porto restaurant on Aug. 10. In southern California, Christine Adams '94 and James Asperger hosted an event in Pasadena on Oct. 26, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere for graduates to reminisce and network.

These events underscore Yale Law School's commitment to maintaining a robust and connected alumni community, fostering a sense of belonging and shared accomplishment among graduates. With the upcoming bicentennial, we look forward to seeing alumni in cities all over the U.S. — and internationally!

The school's second annual Celebration of Scholarships in New York was a true testament to the transformative achievements that have been made possible through the generosity of many dedicated individuals. With both student and alumni speakers, and a performance by Yale's own Redhot and Blue a cappella group, it was an evening to remember.
