

Peter Kellner '03 addresses the attendees.

(from top to bottom) Greg Schwartz '98, Jimmy Golen '99 MSL, and Paul Holtzman '87; Margaret Marshall '76, Charles Dewing, and Margaret Loss '70; Yu Chen Xue '19 and Manning Ding '20

MARTHA'S VINEYARD

Alumni gathered on Martha's Vineyard in August.

A Year of Celebration Regional Bicentennial Events

Two regional events honored Yale Law School's bicentennial before Alumni Weekend in October. (See Alumni Weekend coverage on page 46.)

On Aug. 8, a group gathered on Martha's Vineyard at the home of Patricia Taylor '71, joined by Dean Heather K. Gerken to celebrate Yale Law School's 200th.

On Sept. 19, alumni and guests convened at the Boston Athenaeum for a bicentennial celebration. Attendees were treated to an address by Dean Gerken, who was introduced by Peter Kellner '03. Founded in 1807, the Boston Athenaeum is one of the country's oldest and most distinguished independent libraries, housing more than 500,000 books; 100,000 rare books, maps, and manuscripts; and 100,000 works of art.

Throughout the year and in cities across the country, alumni gather for events organized by Yale Law School's Office of Alumni Engagement and Development. Here is a sampling of the events that have taken place over the past six months.